

As a member of Staffordshire Police UNISON we can help on a range of legal services including:-

Injury and accidents at work

UNISON has won more than £350 million in personal injury compensation for members and their family members. For members involved in work-related personal injuries, this includes assaults, industrial diseases and accidents at work, on the way to or from work or on union business.

Accidents outside work

UNISON's personal injury service covers any accident which happens to you and your family outside the workplace, including: Road traffic accidents, Accidents in the street, Accidents while on holiday and slipping and tripping accidents.

Free legal advice

Members are entitled to free initial legal advice directly from our lawyers on any matter that is not related to work. This service entitles members to a 30-minute telephone interview or a letter containing advice.

Wills and conveyancing service

We provide a free wills service for members (and their partners if drawing up mirror wills). In addition, UNISON has negotiated a low-cost wills service for members' families and a low-cost conveyancing service for members and their families.

To access Unisons Legal Services

To take advantage of the free legal advice, wills and or conveyancing please contact UNISONdirect on 0800 0 857 857 (Monday to Friday 6am-12 midnight, Saturday 9am-4pm).

For work-related issues members should contact Staffordshire Police Unison on 01785 235367 (internal Ext 5367) mobile 07796 277046 or internal email direct to Claire Bruus. For criminal law assistance (where you are facing work-related criminal charges) in an emergency outside of UNISONdirect hours, call the UNISON 24-hour criminal helpline free on 0800 587 7530.

(To be eligible for our legal assistance scheme, you must have been a member for at least four weeks prior to the incident that led you to seek that assistance. You must also be up to date with your subscriptions.)